

Appendix A: Self-assessment form (May 2026)

This self-assessment form should be completed by the complaints officer and it must be reviewed and approved by the landlord's governing body at least annually.

Once approved, landlords must publish the self-assessment as part of the annual complaints performance and service improvement report on their website. The governing body's response to the report must be published alongside this.

Landlords are required to complete the self-assessment in full and support all statements with evidence, with additional commentary as necessary.

We recognise that there may be a small number of circumstances where landlords are unable to meet the requirements, for example, if they do not have a website. In these circumstances, we expect landlords to deliver the intentions of the Code in an alternative way, for example by publishing information in a public area so that it is easily accessible.

Section 1: Definition of a complaint

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
1.2	A complaint must be defined as: 'an expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the landlord, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting a resident or group of residents.'	Yes	www.pfh.org.uk/document/complaints-and-customer-feedback-policy/	Complaints, Compliments & Suggestions Policy section 3.2
1.3	A resident does not have to use the word 'complaint' for it to be treated as such. Whenever a resident expresses dissatisfaction landlords must give them the choice to make complaint. A complaint that is submitted via a third party or representative must be handled in line with the landlord's complaints policy.	Yes		Both points are covered in the Complaints Training that is undertaken by all members of staff.
1.4	Landlords must recognise the difference between a service request and a complaint. This must be set out in their complaints policy. A service request is a request from a resident to the landlord requiring action to be taken to put something right. Service requests are not complaints, but must be recorded, monitored and reviewed regularly.	Yes	https://www.pfh.org.uk/document/complaints-and-customer-feedback-policy/	Complaints, Compliments & Suggestions Policy section 3.5 states a request for service isn't a complaint. Use of HOS service request flows in Complaints Training for staff.

1.5	A complaint must be raised when the resident expresses dissatisfaction with the response to their service request, even if the handling of the service request remains ongoing. Landlords must not stop their efforts to address the service request if the resident complains.	Yes		This forms part of the Complaints Training
1.6	An expression of dissatisfaction with services made through a survey is not defined as a complaint, though wherever possible, the person completing the survey should be made aware of how they can pursue a complaint if they wish to. Where landlords ask for wider feedback about their services, they also must provide details of how residents can complain.	Yes	People First Magazine – PFH Pickering & Ferens Homes PFH Resident Handbook A 4_Feb25.indd	We regularly promote how to complain in our People First magazine. This is also included in our Resident Handbook. As standard we follow up on all negative comments received in surveys where we can identify the resident to proactively solve and escalate where necessary.

Section 2: Exclusions

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
2.1	Landlords must accept a complaint unless there is a valid reason not to do so. If landlords decide not to accept a complaint they must be able to evidence their reasoning. 2.2	A complaints policy must set out the circumstances in which a matter will not be considered as a complaint or escalated, and these circumstances must be fair and reasonable to residents. Acceptable exclusions include: • The issue giving rise to the complaint occurred over twelve months ago. • Legal proceedings have started. This is defined as details of the claim, such as the Claim Form and Particulars of Claim, having been filed at court.	Yes	www.pfh.org.uk/document/complaints-and-customer-feedback-policy/	Complaints, Compliments & Suggestions Policy section 3.5 & 3.8

Yes	www.pfh.org.uk/document/complaints-and-customer-feedback-policy/	Complaints, Compliments & Suggestions Policy section 3.5
2.4	If a landlord decides not to accept a complaint, an explanation must be provided to the resident setting out the reasons why the matter is not suitable for the complaints process and the right to take that decision to the Ombudsman. If the Ombudsman does not agree that the exclusion has been fairly applied, the Ombudsman may tell the landlord to take on the complaint.	Yes	www.pfh.org.uk/document/complaints-and-customer-feedback-policy/	Complaints, Compliments & Suggestions Policy section 3.6
